L.I.N.K.S. Class Descriptions

L.I.N.K.S. for Spouses

The L.I.N.K.S. program offers an orientation to the Marine Corps lifestyle, helping spouses understand and adapt to the unique challenges military life often presents. While the curriculum targets those who are new to the Marine Corps community, the information is very beneficial at all levels of Marine Corps experience. Enjoy a day of fun, learning, networking, insight, tips, vital information and ideas.
♦Lunch Served ♦ Childcare available

L.I.N.K.S. for Kids

A 4 hour event designed for school-aged children (5-12) to celebrate being a Marine Corps kid. Topics included: Culture and traditions of the Marine Corps, feelings surrounding deployment, moving in the military, and things to do around MCAS Miramar and San Diego. Kids get hands on with learning, games, dressing up in uniforms, songs, and more!

L.I.N.K.S. for Marines

Not your typical brief, L.I.N.K.S. provides a fun and interactive overview of vital information, tips and resources available to make your adventure in the Marine Corps easier. Challenge your knowledge of Marine Corps history, culture, and traditions while discovering the resources, services, and benefits available on base. Gain insight on separation & deployments, valuable financial and moving tips. Let us link you to the answers.
♦Civilian Attire ♦ Lunch Served ♦

L.I.N.K.S. for Couples

Life together is a journey. The Marine Corps lifestyle makes our journey unique. Take L.I.N.K.S. and learn to work together as a team in balancing family needs while meeting Marine Corps expectations. This class is similar to L.I.N.K.S. for Spouses, but modified to benefit couples.
♦Lunch Served ♦ Childcare available

L.I.N.K.S. Needs You!!!
