class descriptions

BASIC 101 – “101” is a workout that incorporates purposeful movements and core centered strength, using weights, chair, and stability ball. Total body conditioning will challenge all aspects of your physiology while burning calories and building strength with stability.

BOXING FITNESS – This a full body circuit training class. Boxing Fitness incorporates many different types of exercises, mixed with basic boxing movements. The overall goal is to receive the fitness benefits from boxing as well as the other exercises. NOTE: This is not a self-defense class. To that end, it is not designed to provide boxing instructions, or techniques.

BYOB – This is a fast-paced, barbell/dumb bell-based workout that’s specifically designed to help you get lean, toned and fit, scientifically proven moves to help you achieve these targets more quickly than you would working out on your own.

CHAIR YOGA – This a general term for practices that modify yoga poses so they can be done while seated in a chair. These modifications make yoga accessible to people who cannot stand, lack the mobility to move easily from standing to seated to supine positions, or want a quick break from office work.

GENTLE YOGA – This is a variation of Hatha Yoga which is accessible to students of all levels. This practice is taken at a slow pace and incorporates modifications for each pose that promote bodily awareness. Coupled with breathwork and meditation.

HITT – This discipline delivers a full body, high intensity workout.

PILATES – This is a mind, body, and spirit practice with benefits that include improved posture, better coordination and balance, increased lung capacity, improved concentration and focus, increased body awareness, stress management, and injury prevention. Practicing Mat Pilates helps build strong, balanced body and increases flexibility notice improvements in breathing, you only need your own body and a mat.

RESTORATIVE I-REST YOGA – This form of yoga stimulates the parasympathetic nervous system, which slows the heart rate, regulates the blood pressure and relaxes the body. As such, Restorative Yoga is considered particularly beneficial for those suffering from anxiety, insomnia or headaches, as well as other stress-related conditions. Restorative Yoga could just as easily be called “Mindful Yoga” due to the expanded awareness of self and body that comes through the practice of guided meditation.

SPIN – Ride through this 30-minute, High-Intensity Interval Training (HIIT) workout, using an indoor bike to achieve fast results. It’s a short, intense style of training where the thrill and motivation comes from pushing your physical and mental limits to get you Fitter, Faster and Stronger

YOGA – A system of breathing practices, postures and meditation intended to integrate the body and mind to restore flexibility.

ZUMBA – If you’re interested in getting fit through dancing, this is the class for you! Zumba is a fitness program that combines Latin and international music with dance moves. These dance routines incorporate interval training and alternating fast and slow rhythms, to help improve cardiovascular fitness.

ZUMBA TONING – This form of Zumba incorporates weighted toning sticks, this modality focuses on strength training the Abs, Arms and Thighs. The toning sticks functions like dumbbells to act as resistance weights while keeping the fun enjoyable workout of Zumba moves.
